Dear Tonia

Voluntary Suspension

Phylogica Limited ("Phylogica" or "the Company") (ASX Code: PYC) requests a voluntary suspension be placed on its securities.

The company requests the voluntary suspension whilst the company finalises formal documentation with a large pharmaceutical and biotechnology group regarding a new research partnership.

Phylogica can see no reason why a voluntary suspension should not be put on its securities. The Company's securities are to remain under voluntary suspension until an announcement is released to the market which is expected to be early next week.

Regards

Mr Gregory MacMillan
